About ACASA

We are a statewide coalition of individuals and organizations working together toward the elimination of sexual violence and advocating for sexual assault victims' rights and services. ACASA provides cohesion, vision and resources to members, while working to change public attitudes and beliefs surrounding sexual violence issues.

ACASA'S Vision

We envision a world free of sexual violence in which men and women together assure that all human beings are treated with dignity and respect for their physical, emotional, intellectual and spiritual integrity.
